

Award and Certificate in Equality and Diversity Level 2

Who is the course for?

This course is suitable for a wide range of learners, including those who are already in work to support their continuous professional development, or those seeking employment. It's also ideal for those who are looking to develop an awareness of issues surrounding equality and diversity, for their own personal development.

What are the benefits of doing this course?

This course will help raise awareness of discrimination, prejudice, stereotyping, and individual freedoms and rights. In doing so, it will promote learners' understanding of what it means to live in a diverse society and the laws of that are in a place to prevent unjust behaviour.

Course content

The Level 2 Award and Certificate in Equality and Diversity comprises three units across two module workbooks as follows:

- ▶ Equality and diversity in society
- ▶ Equality and diversity in the community
- ▶ Equality and diversity in the workplace

Progression opportunities

By undertaking this programme, candidates will be able to further their own continuous professional development, which may improve their career prospects.

Course delivery and assessment

The programme enables learners to complete the course in their own time, and all study material and resources are provided. Learners have access to a tutor and the programme is marked based on modular assessment. There is also the opportunity to work through a series of reflective activities designed to reinforce the learning.

Entry requirements

Learners should be aged 14 and over but otherwise there are no specific entry requirements for this programme.

For further information contact

Hereward College

E: tracey.andrews@hereward.ac.uk

T: 024 7642 6194

www.hereward.ac.uk

